MESSAGES

Dr. R. J. Pardikar
President - ISNT

Dear Friends,

The Indian Society for NDT (ISNT) has been playing the pivotal role in promoting the science and technology of NDT for the last four decades through various activities. I am delighted to note that the next Annual Conference and Exhibition of ISNT, NDE 2019 will be held at Bengaluru during December 5-7, 2019. For many of us, it is a dream coming true. NDE 2019 marks a veritable milestone in history of ISNT. Our aim will be to make it, in its own way, one of the most important and cherishable events. Every year, the quality of the National conference on NDE is getting enhanced and is attracting the experts not only from India but also from other parts of the world. NDE-2019 will continue to raise the bar over the previous events and surely set a new bench mark.

NDE has grown over the last few decades from Qualitative science to Quantitative Science and technology. The main challenge of NDE is to ensure improved detectability and flaw characterisation, to provide better operational efficiencies, to ensure structural integrity and safety of critical engineering components in nuclear, aerospace, power, defence, petrochemical and fabrication industries. The challenges to NDE can be successfully met only through synergy of innovative approaches. The NDE conference is being held at Bengaluru, the hub of Aerospace and IT industries after a gap of several decades, and its focus will be on the current trends in the NDE and inspection domain as we embrace Industry 4.0.

NDE 2019 will prove to be very rewarding and useful experience for all the scientists, engineers, practitioners, exhibitors and students who are aspiring to attend this conference and I on behalf of ISNT welcome everyone of you to come to Bengaluru and attend NDE 2019 to make it a resounding and convincing success.

Dr. Shyamsunder Mandayam
Chairman, NDE 2019

Dear Colleagues,

An event which the NDE community in India looks forward to every year is the annual NDE conference and exhibition which is organized by the Indian Society for NDT. This event brings together the best of practicing professionals, academicians, researchers, manufacturers, service providers and students on one platform to learn, share, network and become enriched. The theme of this year's conference is "eNDEavours from Detection to Prediction" which highlights the changing trends in the world of industrial inspection and will offer an opportunity for professionals to be a thought leader in driving this vision. The exhibition will showcase the latest and best-in-class products from around the world to help the Indian industry adopt and practice advanced methodologies. On behalf of my organizing committee, I extend my warm invitation to each one of you to be a part of NDE 2019 and welcome you to the city of Bangalore, officially called Bengaluru – a city known by several names including, Garden City, Pub City, Silicon Valley of India, IT capital of India, Education city and so on. Bangalore is the second fastest-growing major metropolis in India and has one of the most highly educated workforces in the world. We are sure you will enjoy your stay and the event which is being planned meticulously to ensure each one of you returns home delighted. Looking forward to welcoming you all to Bangalore in December 2019!
